

Mr. Brian Truskowski: Secretary

Brian joined the Land Conservancy of Ridgefield (LCR) in 2008. During 2008, Brian was elected the LCR Secretary, a responsibility he continues. Brian also maintains the LCR website. In 2014, Brian also became the Chair of the Board Development Committee.

Brian enjoys the outdoors and sees significant value in preserving the open spaces of Ridgefield. The preservation of our natural resources is a personal priority for Brian, as he works to insure these resources are available for future generations. He enjoys working in the field but also brings organizational skills to the LCR.

Brian has lived in Ridgefield since 2002. He continues a 36-year career at a global technology company. In his free time, he enjoys gardening, home projects and spending time on Long Island Sound.

In addition to an electrical engineering degree, Brian holds a Masters in the Management of Technology and a Masters in Business Administration.
