

Nancy Sullivan Murray: Director

Nancy Sullivan Murray joined the Land Conservancy in 2009 and shortly thereafter began serving as its Treasurer. She has had a 30 year career in the financial sector and volunteers to put some of professional experience to work in the community. Previously Nancy had little involvement in conservation, yet growing up in Ridgefield and witnessing its rapid development, she is passionate about finding ways to protect the intrinsic value and environmental quality of the Ridgefield community. Today she continues as Treasurer and is also a member of the Finance Committee. She graduated from Fairfield University with a B.A. in Economics. She and her husband enjoy everyday living in Ridgefield alongside wetlands conserved by the RLC.
